Real member scenario

When doctors recommended hospice for my father-in-law, I was paralyzed by the unknowns. My husband and I were already at capacity with raising three teenagers and managing full time jobs. Our Family First Care Expert, had a tremendous amount of knowledge and experience dealing with hospice, eldercare and the emotional journey for a family. She let us know what to expect, questions to ask and the choices we have. She helped us make an informed decision. Without her, my family would have been scrambling in chaos and confusion, not knowing where to go for help.
